Dear Honorable Judge Jaxis Lhamon Jack,

I would like to start out by saying the following is not an attempt at an excuse for my actions. I know I did wrong and I am sorry.

I would like to supply you with some brief family history. My father was in the navy and me and my siblings were all born in foreign countries. My mother is from Columbia and my father is from the US. Being a navy child meant we moved about every 3 years and no extended family or long term friendships. We moved to HK in 93 where my dad was stationed at Igleside as the chief detective. Here's where the arguing between mom and dad really started. It was still in the house in 94 & I was 10-11 years old and my parents fought all the time. My mother suffered from severe depression and substance abuse (meth). Dad left in 95. When dad moved out times were really hard because he was our only source of income. We (4 kids) moved into a small 2 bdrm apartment. I'd get on a boat to Italy in 96. Because of my mother's constant drug abuse she told my dad she could no longer take care of us properly. And returned from emergency Humanitarian Service Reassignment. By this time our family had deteriorated to a degree of irreversibility. My dad didn't trust any just began running the house like a bootcamp. We lived like that until 99 when my sisters and I moved back with mom. In 2000 I met a man I thought I'd end up with him. I had my son Peter who is the absolute joy of my life. His father and I斗嘴 and I started being a better mom, which is how I began my self destructive path with meth.

When I met Oscar Salazar he apparently was dealing. Without realizing the severity of the consequences I allowed myself to consume my state of well being, which brought me to the situation I'm in today.

Points I'm trying to make:

1. Being your a drug child your life is never stable and it presents neglect in structure family affairs.
2. Drugs are a product of our environment and addiction is hereditary.
3. When I met the man whom I thought would support me financially and emotionally it turned out to be a liability rather than an asset due to illegal activities.
4. My mom is now clean sober and with my sister is back caring for my son. They wanted to leave the illicit lifestyle they had been and are doing great.
5. I miss my son so much and he misses me. I need to be there to care for him, to hold him and help him to make the right decisions. I failed to make them. I can do it.
6. I know I must, regret any mistakes I've paid for others mistakes, my whole life so surely I should pay for any all. Please see fit to give me a minimum sentence. Please find it in your heart to send me as close to At Smith Art as possible where I can be close to my son.

Respectfully,

Brenda Day

Dear Honorable Judge Dennis Graham Jack,
I'm writing on behalf of Brenda Golden Day, my daughter. I want you to have mercy on my daughter for her prison time and give her credit for the time she is serving.
See it in your heart that you place my daughter in a federal prison in Arkansas
so that her son Peter may visit his mother as well as myself and her family and friends.
Brenda will follow your orders to go to rehabilitation
she will finish it and be off drugs permanently. She has learned her lesson of drugs
are not the way of life.
Brenda also will complete
her GED or high school diploma
so that she will be employable
and if she chooses can continue her education to college so that she can provide for her son Peter
over→

a better life.

Upon Brenda's release of prison she will move to Fort Smith, Arkansas. She will have the support of me, her sister Linda, close friends Gine and Tom Larson and Tammy Heseman, Pastor Don Brewer and the Saint Lukes Lutheran Church congregation. She will have plenty of love to help her to be on the right track with the right people. She will have the second chance she deserves once she fulfills her debt to society.

My daughter has learned that the company you keep even if you are not involved in the wrong doing that you pay the price for being in their company. She knows that doing drugs has not been the right choice to make.

Being her mother, I love her.

No matter what. My love for her is unconditional. My heart breaks for her everyday knowing that she is in jail for her poor choice she made. Her son Petey misses his mommy deeply. I love Petey but I can't take Brendis place. Petey needs his mommy to fulfill her prison time in Arkansas where he can visit her. Petey knows his mommy is in jail.

Judge please have mercy on my daughter that is all that I can ask of you.

Yours truly,

Mary Day
